

7th Annual VETERANS SUMMIT

Northern Vermont University

MARCH 9, 2019 | 8 a.m. – 3 p.m.

NVU-Johnson Campus | 337 College Hill | Johnson, VT 05656

Key Note Address by Dr. Ed Tick, Soldiers Heart Inc.

Edward Tick, Ph.D., is an internationally recognized transformational healer, poet, psychotherapist, writer, and educator. He is honored for his groundbreaking work in the psycho-spiritual, holistic, and community-based healing of the invisible wounds of war in the military, veterans, communities, and nations. An expert in both the ancient Greek and Vietnamese traditions, Ed leads annual trips to these countries. Co-founder and director of Soldier's Heart (www.soldiersheart.net), Ed is the author of five previous books. The Bull Awakening is his second poetry collection.

Building relationships, strengthening connections, and enhancing regional support for veterans.

Presented by the Northern Vermont University Veterans Club in partnership with the NVU Veteran Student Support Committee and other veteran service organizations

Northern Vermont University is ranked No. 1 in public universities with fewer than 10,000 enrolled students.

Summit Events

Keynote Address: Dr. Ed Tick
Soldier's Heart, Inc.

Summit Address: Dr. Jason Clark
US Naval Veteran and Physical Therapist

Exhibitor Booths

Information booths from more than 50 veteran service organizations—one-stop-shop for veteran services, clubs, and resources.

Breakout Sessions

On homeless veterans, employment opportunities, women veterans, mental health awareness, student veterans, and military sexual trauma.

The Mobile Vet Center

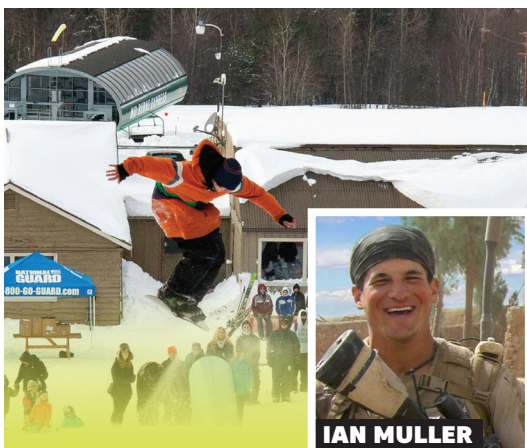

The VA's Mobile Vet Center offers readjustment counseling and information resources to veterans.

The Stand Down

The Department of Veterans Affairs will be hosting a one-day Stand Down in conjunction with the Veterans Summit; the event will provide valuable services to homeless veterans.

To register or for more information, visit: NorthernVermont.edu/VeteransSummit or contact: Thom Anderson, Thomas.Anderson@NorthernVermont.edu

Other Weekend Summit Events

POST-SUMMIT EVENT
Saturday, March 9
6th Annual
Ian Muller Rail Jam
Burke Mountain
1–6 p.m.

The Base Lodge at Burke Mountain, 223 Sherburne Lodge Road, East Burke, VT Competition, food, entertainment, and live music. All proceeds fund the Ian Muller Memorial Scholarship for student veterans at Northern Vermont University.

Sunday, March 10
Free Lift Tickets for Veterans and Their Immediate Family Members
Burke Mountain

Proof of service required

Burke Mountain is offering free lift tickets for veterans and their immediate family members. The Burke Mountain Hotel and Conference Center is offering a lodging package at a deeply discounted rate for anyone attending the summit. Two people can stay from $184/night plus tax in a studio suite. To make reservations, contact the reservation desk at 866.966.4820 and use PROMO CODE: "MJAM" to receive the lodging discount.

SkiBurke.com

This year's summit has been made possible through a grant by the Vermont Veterans Fund and the generosity of our contributors.

Northern Vermont University Veterans Association
NorthernVermont.edu

