

Summer Summit on Homelessness July 28th, 2022 Vermont Technical College, Randolph

- 10:00-10:15 Welcome: Kara Casey and Jess Graff, VCEH Co-Chairs
- 10:15-10:35 Keynote: Hilary Melton, Executive Director of Pathways Vermont
- 10:35-11:00 Partners of the Year for providing shelter during the pandemic, presented by Sarah Phillips, VT Office of Economic Opportunity

ANEW Place	New Story Center
Bennington County Coalition for the Homeless	Project Against Violent Encounters (PAVE)
Charter House Coalition	Samaritan House
Circle	Spectrum Youth & Family Services
Clarina Howard Nichols Center	Steps to End Domestic Violence
Committee on Temporary Shelter	Umbrella
Good Samaritan Haven	Upper Valley Haven
Groundworks Collaborative	Voices Against Violence
John Graham Housing & Services	Windsor County Youth Services
Lamoille Community House	Women's Freedom Center
Mosaic Vermont

- 11:00-11:20 Honoring Rita Markley, COTS, introduced by Paul Dragon, CVOEO
- 11:20-12:15 Lunch
- 12:15-1:15 Panel of shelter directors discussing, “How has the pandemic impacted your thinking about how we provide emergency shelter and services?” Heidi Lacey, Charter House Coalition; Kim Anetsberger, Lamoille Community House; Rick DeAngelis, Good Samaritan Haven; moderated by Michael Redmond, Upper Valley Haven
- 1:15-1:30 VCEH Governance: Martin Hahn, VCEH, and Kara Casey, VT Network
- 1:30-2:30 Breakout discussion sessions: introduced by Molly Shimko, VCEH:
- Meeting the needs of homeless youth in Vermont
 - Engaging your community to fund the work of ending homelessness
 - Creating and supporting healing residences
 - Barriers to accessing and utilizing services
 - Addressing racial and other disparities
 - Legislative and policy strategies to end homelessness
 - Local housing coalition strategies
 - Applying housing first principles
 - Continued discussion with panel of shelter directors
- 2:30 Thank you and wrap-up
- 2:30-3:30 Informal Networking
- Note: this is an informal event.